

1. A Victorian chair from Bardith adds quirky personality to the living room. 2. Vintage Lequer boxes are displayed in the library. 3. Cameron glazed a library wall pale peach, but left the ceiling high-gloss yellow. 4. In the breakfast area, she put Anthropologie seat cushions on Bellini chairs from Design Within Reach. 5. A medley of patterns lends coziness to a seating area in the master bedroom. The love seat is covered in Click Track by Chella Textiles. 6. An Irish oval mirror hung horizontally echoes the curve of the mahogany table. 7. A third seating area in the living room takes full advantage of the view of the Charles River. 8. Cameron cheered up a guest room with Kinnicutt wallpaper by Sister Parish Design. OPPOSITE: "The walls of the dining room are glazed apricot," the designer says, "so at the end of the day the room just glows." A cotton tablecloth from India overlays a burlap cloth from Ballard Designs.
